Valedictorians

Abbey Saulnier

Medical Office Assistant, Eastern Online

My fellow graduates, it is my honour to be chosen as valedictorian for Eastern Online. While this may not be a traditional graduation ceremony it is still a major milestone in our lives and the journey we took to get here is an experience we will never forget. Let us look back on this past year and remember the knowledge we have gained in the pursuit of success. Let us never forget the challenges we faced and how we managed to overcome every obstacle that came our way to be here today. As we close this chapter of our lives another one begins and while some may not know where their story is going, I know that we will all find success in our own ways.

As we the class of 2022 prepare for our next adventure, I would like to end with a quote from Michelle Obama, "Success is only meaningful and enjoyable if it feels like your own." I hope that all my fellow graduates find the success they seek and enjoy the lives they make for themselves.

Pharmacy Assistant, Fredericton Campus

I am honored to have been chosen as Valedictorian and extremely proud of all of us graduating today. It has been a very different college experience with remote learning and eBook texts, but it was great. As a mature student I was a little intimidated by the words “online class”, luckily it was much better than I had imagined. It was fun to see fellow classmates pets and children as we attended our online classes, and the commute was easy.

I would like to thank the amazing staff and faculty for all their work and encouragement. It was a pleasure to have such helpful and accessible teachers. The time we spent on campus for our labs was invaluable, despite having to change out of our pajamas, practicing hands on skills was extremely beneficial.

To my fellow graduates: We did it! All the studying, homework, quizzes, and exams are over. Eastern College has prepared us well for our new careers. As we leave college behind ready to face new challenges, I know we’re ready for them. I wish everyone the best of luck in their new endeavors.

“Work hard and be kind and amazing things will happen.” Conan O’Brien

Congratulations Spring 2022 Grads!

James Cameron

Criminology, Halifax Campus

My fellow graduates, congratulations! We have all successfully navigated our way through a very challenging school setting these last few years and have much to be thankful for. Having access to technology meant our education didn’t get derailed, and as such, the commute to class was, at times, no more than falling out of bed and switching on the computer. I mean who does not appreciate an extra hour in bed in the morning?!

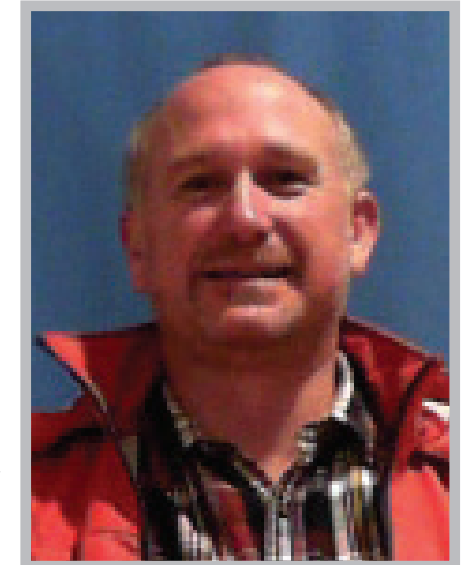

Covid provided everyone the opportunity to find ways to be social in this new virtual learning environment. Getting to know your fellow classmates was achieved electronically through online chats, classes and virtual coffee meetings. KAHOOT anyone?

Besides getting to know your classmates virtually we also got to meet a lot of your pets who became stars of the classroom. Now that we have been back on campus, I can’t be the only one who misses seeing Prudence!

Thank you also to our wonderful instructors and administrators for the huge efforts you made to keep the classes running by adapting so quickly to the changes needed to go between classrooms and online teaching. Without your hard work we may not have been able to graduate on time and for that we are very thankful.

We are all here as a result of adapting to new ways of learning which helped us to achieve our diplomas. For those of you who are parents of young children, caregivers, or even if you returned to school after many years, you should be proud of overcoming the additional challenges you faced. You are an inspiration to others who want to start or change their careers in this new hybrid learning environment.

Finally, my old headmaster once told me, “Minds are like parachutes, they only function when open.” So, whatever your career path is, keep your minds open to learning new things and you will become better versions of yourselves, and be proud of your achievements!

Child and Youth Care with Addictions Support Worker, Moncton Campus

Welcome everyone to our graduation! I am very honoured to be nominated as the valedictorian.

During my time at Eastern College, I was able to be a part of an amazing class and meet amazing people. Online schooling can be very challenging at times but I'm proud to say that I made it with the support of my classmates and my amazing instructor! One thing that's very important is always staying on top of things and keeping up with assignments! Managing time is something that is very helpful and very much helped me towards success. I was extremely lucky to be apart of such an amazing college. It was such a beautiful journey. On the challenging days, I always remember why I started. I appreciate each and everyone that was a part of my journey.

"Live your life each day as you would climb a mountain. An occasional glance towards the summit keeps the goals in mind, but many beautiful scenes are to be observed from each new vantage point."

I want to thank all staff at Eastern College, all my classmates and my amazing instructor for the support!

Congratulations to all grads!

Danielle Robertson

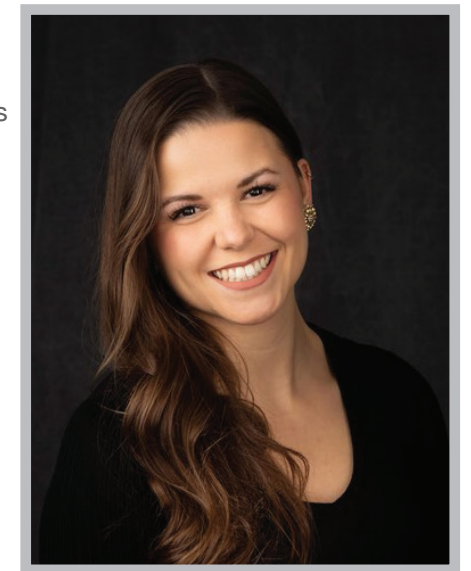

Child and Youth Care with Addictions Support Worker, Saint John Campus

Congratulations Eastern College, Graduating Class of 2022, can you believe it? We did it! College in itself is a challenging task, pair this with the added responsibilities of adulthood and you have a balancing act like no other. Alone, graduation is a success that requires great skill and is something to be proud of. That being said, it takes even greater skill to navigate college during a global pandemic. The late nights, lost files, frozen screens and frustration over a poor Wi-Fi connection have all become worth it. Your hard work and determination are what got you here. You should all be very proud.

This day marks the end of an extraordinary chapter in our lives and the beginning of an exciting new journey. I have no doubt that everyone is leaving here with the knowledge and skills to begin a successful and fulfilling career. I encourage you to reflect positively on your time here, and go forward with confidence and pride.

I would like to thank the directors, instructors and administrative staff at Eastern College for playing a vital role in our journey, and their commitment to our success. Finally, our friends, family and classmates who stood by us through every up and down, thank you for the continued support and encouragement.

Now here is to us; may you do great things, make big changes and smile every step of the way. Cheers to you all, and congratulations once again.
